On 4-9-14 a student reported to police that he was walking home from Sherman School yesterday and an adult male in a vehicle offered him a ride home. He described the male subject as an older white male with grey hair and was wearing black glasses. The vehicle was described as a black Honda Civic.

Today, 4-10-14, a parent of a Fairfield student, contacted the Fairfield Police after reading the Suspicious-Person Alert and identified himself as the subject involved in this incident. The subject explained that he spoke to the student because he was skateboarding unsafely in the roadway with vehicular traffic. He explained that he was concerned for the child's safety and tried to encourage the child to move out of the roadway twice within a short distance because the child did not heed his advice after his first contact with him. There was no offer of a ride to the child.

The subject involved was completely cooperative, providing photographs of himself and his vehicle, which were later confirmed by the child. There was no evidence that the male subject had any bad intentions.
