George Bascom arrested Apache Chief Cochise for raiding a ranch. Cochise escaped and declared war. The wars lasted 25 years under the leadership of Cochise, and later, Geronimo.		 225th Birth Anniversary of Wilhelm Grimm Wilhelm Grimm and his brother Jacob collected more than 200 stories from various parts of Germany and published them for the first time in 1812. Examples of these tales include "Hansel and Gretel," "Cinderella," and "The Frog Prince." The stories often include magic, communication between animals and humans and moral values. Wilhelm Grimm was born on February 24, 1786.
