Deanna O. Kiernan Award 2013

The Deanna O. Kiernan Award is presented annually by the PTA Council of Fairfield, in memory of a beloved past president. Ms. Kiernan's PTA contributions were made at the local and state level, and she was active in the League of Women Voters up to the time of her death.

When considering a nominee, the following criteria should be considered and met.
The nominee should:

- Be a present or past PTA member
- Be currently or previously a key volunteer in the Fairfield Public Schools
- Be involved significantly in the betterment of our youth and schools
- Have made a system-wide contribution to further education in Fairfield

Past recipients of this award have been:

Brian Kelahan, Sarah Lubarsky, Betty Anne O'Shaughnessy, Charlotte Leslie, Ellen Dixon, Susan Callahan, Mary McCullough, Mary Tinti, Chris Hubbard, Barbara Rifkin, Ellen Moore, George Markley, Kathy O'Brien, Selina Strong, Alis B. McGrath, Debbie Ziff, Sidney Posto, Jonathan Kaufman, Sue Brand and last year's 2012 recipient Pam Brennan.

Fairfield PTA Council is now seeking nominations for the 2013 Deanna O. Kiernan Award. Applications may be obtained on the Fairfield Public Schools website, www.fairfieldschoolsct.org, on the PTA Council website, www.fairfieldptac.org, at the Central Office at 501 Kings Highway E., or by contacting PTA Council Awards Chair, Leonora Campbell at campbelll@sacredheart.edu or 335-2423.
